SOME LIVELY NEWS FROM THE GREAT REBUILDING SALE

The builders are working already. The dust and dirt are just beginning to put in an appearance. It's doubly imperative that we sell every article in our stock AT ONCE. There'll be no reservations—the best of summer wearables at prices far below cost of manufacture. Look over this list:

Don't Forget to Ask for
TRADING STAMPS

As the builder work approaches the main floor of our building—the prices take a decided drop again. We've promised them right of way—we mean to live up to our agreement. Everything goes now at a fragment of actual worth. The finest goods at the cost of the cheapest—the cheapest for little or nothing.

OUR GREAT LACE AND EMBROIDERY SALE

Second Shipment of Delayed Importation Just Arrived

New Goods to Go at Less Than Cost Abroad Because of Rebuilding

Here's positively the greatest news ever offered the shopping public of Washington as regards Laces and Embroideries. Months ago we placed an order abroad for fine Embroideries and Laces. The goods were delayed in shipment—the first consignment arrived a week or so ago—but the better portion—in fact, the bulk—just arrived yesterday, and go on sale tomorrow. 25,000 YARDS OF EMBROIDERIES OF THE FINEST GRADE INCLUDED. Think of it—these new, desirable goods going at less than cost to us—at less than cost to produce abroad. From the very narrow Baby Edges up to the 18-inch-wide Corset Cover and Flouncing Embroideries there are exceptional bargains. Included is the finest work in English Eyelet, Drawn Work, Semi-Blind, Irish Point, Blind, and Open Work. To miss this sale is like throwing away money—you can buy now for future use, and secure the best investment possible. Don't delay.
